Highlights in June

June is National Donut Month, and it's also Brain Health Awareness Month! Enjoy a donut and coffee on June 2nd while playing a Who-'Donut' game to work your brain.

celebrate Judy Garland's birthday.

origins of this holiday.

On the 21st, welcome Summer with a homemade ice cream social at the Assisted Living.

Another national day in June is Tea Day; join us for tea trivia and cool drinks on June 29th.

Celebrate Dads!

Thanks, Dad!

A dad is a hero.

Prepare for the Parade!

Walk or ride...

It's time to start planning for the annual Bradford Village Independence Day parade! The parade will be on the morning of Monday, July 3rd (exact start time TBA.) We'll finish the parade at the Assisted Living with cool drinks and sweet treats, then enjoy grilled hot dogs and hamburgers for lunch. On Friday, June 30th, pick up a decor kit or get help brainstorming a parade entry.

Book Club Pick

The House on 4th Street by Connie Wesala is the June book selection, set right here in Edmond!

From the Oklahoma Land Run through the dust bowl, Tulsa massacre, great depression, WWII, and Vietnam to the present, this story shapes Karen Johnston. Will the journals and memorabilia she finds in the attic of her deceased parents' home in Edmond, OK also help her figure out her own life path? Join the discussion on June 13th.
